Rules of Origin

Note by the UNCTAD secretariat

This document contains relevant extracts from communications received from El Salvador, 1/ Israel, 2/ Jamaica, 3/ Myanmar, Saint Lucia, 4/ Turkey. 5/

El Salvador

"The President of the Central Reserve Bank of El Salvador, in a letter dated 20 September 1989, informed you that, as from that date, the Export and Import Procedures Centre (CENTREX), forms part of the Central Reserve Bank. It is the institution responsible for administering and authorizing certificates of origin under the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). The stamp endorsing such authorizations was enclosed in that letter." 6/

"... We should be grateful if you would communicate the authorized signatures and stamps, which we annex hereto, to the countries of the European Economic Community granting the preferences, and acknowledge receipt of this letter."

Israel

"Please find enclosed specimen of signatures and stamps 7/ used at the export station of Department of Customs and Excise of the Government of Israel, for the purpose of certificates of origin to products eligible for GSP treatment."

Jamaica

"I have the honour to advise that under the Jamaica Promotions Corporation (JAMPRO) Act 1990 of the Jamaica Parliament, the legal statutory obligations and responsibilities of the Jamaica National Export Corporation (JNEC) are to be assumed by the Jamaica Promotions Corporation. As a consequence, effective 1 September 1990, the stamps used to certify goods entering under the Generalized System of Preferences will bear the name Jamaica Promotions Corporation." 8/

Myanmar

"Please find enclosed specimen of the official stamp of the Directorate of Trade of the Union of Myanmar which has been authorized to issue certificates of origin (Form A) in export transactions under GSP." 9/

Saint Lucia

"The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Saint Lucia has the honour to forward, on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs and Excise, the specimen signatures of Customs officials authorized to sign Certificates of Origin (Form A) for exports under the Generalised System of Preferences (GSP)." 10/

Turkey

"... I have the pleasure of enclosing the specimen stamps used by Turkish bodies authorized to issue certificates of origin. 11/

I should be grateful if you would be so kind as to circulate these specimens as an official UNCTAD document."
